Grace Management, Inc. Congratulates Second Recipient of Living Gracefully Award

Maple Grove, MN – December 15, 2022 — Residents and associates of Northgate Park, a Grace Management, Inc. community, recently celebrated the retirement of Executive Director, Rosemarie Caldwell. Caldwell is the second recipient of the new Grace Management, Inc. Living Graceful Award.

Caldwell has served and led the community at Northgate Park for the last five and a half years. “Rosemarie has served the community of Northgate Park in a way that truly exemplifies the Grace Culture of Caring and Leadership,” says Patty Luessenhop, Senior Vice President of Operations at Grace Management, Inc. “Rosemarie has shown great commitment to the Northgate Park community for the past five and a half years. Congratulations, Rosemarie, this award is well deserved!”

The purpose of the Grace Management, Inc. Living Gracefully Award is to recognize GMI associates or constituents who exemplify the Grace Culture of Caring and Leadership within their role, responsibilities, or involvement with Grace Management Inc. The Living Gracefully Award may be awarded at any time throughout the year to honor and recognize an associate’s or constituent’s accomplishments, leadership, or commitment to the community or overall organization.
