FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Grace Management, Inc. Welcomes New Senior VP of Human Resources

Maple Grove, MN – August 5, 2020 — Grace Management, Inc. welcomes new Senior Vice President of Human Resources Suzanne Hansmann to the Grace Management family.

Hansmann started with Grace Management in June 2020. She is located at the Grace Management, Inc. Home Office in Maple Grove, Minn.

As Senior Vice President of Human Resources, Hansmann directs and leads all Human Resources functions for Grace Management, Inc. She has more than 25 years of experience in all facets of Human Resources, with specific expertise in areas of associate engagement and organizational effectiveness. Hansmann is a collaborative leader, eager to optimize and build cultures that enable associates and leaders to do their best work.

“I’m thrilled to be part of the Grace Management family,” Hansmann said. “I look forward to working at one of the best senior housing management companies with top-notch, experienced associates and an amazing work culture!”

Prior to joining Grace Management, Inc. Hansmann held Human Resources leadership roles in various settings including medical device, dental manufacturing, and retail services. She led the Human Resources function for Dental Services Group, where she designed the Human Resources strategy and had oversight and implementation of multiple acquisitions of varying sizes.

Additional previous roles include strategic Human Resources planning and management for medical device start-up companies and fully commercialized medical manufacturing sites such as Integer Medical, Livanova, Medtronic, and Supervalu.

“We are excited and honored to have Suzanne join our Grace Management family,” said Grace Management, Inc. President Guy Geller. “She has incredible experience and expertise that we know will serve our associates and communities well.”

Hansmann earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education from Mankato State University. She holds current certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR).
