The Country Club of La Cholla Celebrates Grand Reopening

Tucson, AZ – May 14th, 2019 — Premier senior living community The Country Club of La Cholla celebrated its Grand Reopening on May 14, in Tucson, Arizona.

More than 200 guests walked the red carpet during the Grand Reopening event, which included a ribbon cutting ceremony, professional harp music, champagne, hors d'oeuvres, and tours of the community. Local politicians, business owners, community members, and the Oro Valley Chamber of Commerce were in attendance.

“We wanted to celebrate our community’s change in ownership to Grace Management, Inc.,” said The Country Club of La Cholla Executive Director Lionel Kier. “We have been in the Northwest Tucson area for the past 28 years. We are thrilled to have Grace Management support our long-standing commitment to serving the local market as a Senior Living Provider of Choice.”

Grace Management, Inc. is a nationally recognized leader in the delivery of senior living management services and assumed management of The Country Club of La Cholla earlier this year. The Country Club of La Cholla provides quality independent living and assisted living amenities and programming.

“We have a seasoned team of management professionals and the most caring associates that go out of their way to engage residents,” Kier said. “With a 20,000 square foot Clubhouse, we truly are a Country Club, with exceptional amenities, but more importantly with exceptional associates. You will feel welcome the moment you enter our community. Ask our residents, and they will tell you how welcome they feel. We are committed to exceeding expectations.”
